Description:

This 1985 Socata Trinidad is clean, sharp, and ready to fly. Stripped and repainted in 2021, it shows well with no corrosion. The engine and prop have low time, and the same Midwest owner for 25 years has taken great care with maintenance. New thicker door windows make for a quieter cabin. The executive interior with rear seat console adds comfort for passengers. This aircraft is a solid cross-country performer, well cared for, and ready to go.
