

Year:	2004	Make:	WILLIAMS JOHN	Model:	T-51 MUSTANG
S / N:	M04SV6SOHK0027		Registration #:	N151TA	# of Seats:	2
Category:	Experimental
Total Time:	665		SNEW: 332		Type:	SEL
Location:	Greenup, Kentucky			Contact Person:	Matt Hutton

$109,000

Bullet Points:

- New Glass
- New Braided Brake Lines
- Fresh Annual
- Open to Trades

Description:

Experience the thrill of aviation history with this exceptional Titan T-51 Mustang replica. Built by John Williams in 2004 and impeccably maintained, it was originally the factory demo known as "Oh My" and now sports the iconic "Lou IV" paint scheme. Recently back on the market, this T-51 offers an affordable way to fly with classic style. Previously sold by 254-735-5030

hello@airspaceauctions.com

us and enjoyed by its owner, it's now ready for a new home from his collection of warbirds and replicas. Don't miss this chance to own a piece of aviation innovation.

Airframe:

2004 Williams John T-51 Mustang

Registration Number: N151TA

Serial Number: M04SV6SOHK0027

Aircraft Total Time: 665

Date of Condition Inspection: Will be sold with fresh inspection

Fuel Capacity: 25 gallons

Stall Speed: 50 MPH

Range: 720 miles

Cruise: 180 MPH

VNE 215 MPH

2,500 feet per minute climb rate

18,000 foot ceiling

HP and Complex

Aerobatic

Engine:

Honda V6 J35-A6

245 hp

SNEW: 332

Prop:

Whirlwind 100-4-84 Standard 4 Prop

Prop Total Time: 332

Avionics:

GRT EFIS & GPS

Sigtronics SPA 400 Intercom

Bendix King KY 97A TSO Radio

Bendix King KT76A

ADSB

ELT

3- 12 volt plug ins

No autopilot

Airspeed Indicator

Altimeter

Vertical Speed Indicator

Turn Coordinator

Tachometer

254-735-5030

hello@airspaceauctions.com

Manifold Pressure Gauge
Water Temperature Gauge
Fuel Pressure Gauge

Additional Features:

Removable rear stick and rudder pedals
Strobe and landing lights
Dual controls
Tandem seating

Exterior:

The exterior of this aircraft is painted as "Lou IV", the most photographed P51 of WWII flown by fighter ace Col. Thomas J.J. Christian of the 375th F.S.

Interior:

The interior of the aircraft offers tandem seating and dual controls with the look of a real P51D. The inside is green with tan seats, and a black panel.

Listing Data:

<https://bids.airspaceauctions.com/Listing/Details/537019/2004-T-51-Mustang-New-Glass-N151TA>
