THE RAMP REPORT

Free weekly report on the newest Cessna & Piper listings and price cuts, through the eyes of a former aircraft dealer

I don't just show you what's for sale. I walk you through real ads, show you what matters to me, and teach you how to spot a good airplane and avoid the wrong one, so you can buy your next airplane with confidence.

What You Get Every Monday at 7 AM ET

- The newest listings and price cuts on the models buyers want most
- On the Ramp: Through a Dealer's Eye, my picks with a grade on each one
- Plain-English notes on what each ad says, and what it leaves out
- Free with your subscription: my ebook, How to Buy an Airplane

Models covered: Cessna 172, 182, 206 and 210. Piper Cherokee 180, Archer, Warrior, Arrow, Cherokee Six and Saratoga/Lance.

Sample Pick: 1967 Cessna 182K

Location	Lansing, IL
Asking price	$140,000
Total time	3,704 hours
Engine	125 hours since major overhaul
Storage	Hangared since 2011
My grade	LOOK

Dealer's tip: A fresh engine and steady hangar history are a strong start. Put down a refundable deposit, then get a thorough pre-buy before closing, so you know exactly what you're buying.

Who's Behind It

Pilot since 1993, CFI since 1997, and 14 years as an aircraft dealer. I'm on the buyer's side, helping you become a smarter, more confident airplane buyer.

Subscribe free to The Ramp Report on Substack and get How to Buy an Airplane.

See you on the ramp,

Dave DeBerardinis