Specifications:
FOR SALE: 1942 Fairchild PT-26A Cornell (M-62A-3)
Registration: N69256
Serial Number: FV-257
Military Identity: RAF FV257 / RCAF 15158
Location: Delaware Coastal Airport - Georgetown, Delaware USA

Airframe & Powerplant Specifications:

- Engine: Ranger L-440-7 (6-440-C5) 6-Cylinder Inverted, Air-Cooled Inline (200 HP)
- Aircraft Engine TT : 1083 hrs.
- Engine SMOH: 574 hrs.
- Total Airframe Time: 2643 hrs.
- Propeller: Sensenich Wooden Prop
- Construction: Welded steel-tube fuselage with excellent fabric tension; classic robust spruce and mahogany plywood wings in reconditioned condition.

Spare Engine

- Ranger Aviation Engine
- Air Corps Model L-440-3
- Ranger Model 6-440C-5
- Spec. No. 161
- Air Corps No. 42-261797
- Mfrs. No. 6130
- Date: 1/19/1943

Avionics & Cockpit Features:

- Full tandem dual-control configurations (ideal for flight instruction or co-piloted touring).
- Equipped with classic vintage instrumentation.
- Retractable blind-flying instrument hood layout preserved.
- Clean, well-detailed cockpits reflecting careful indoor storage.

Maintenance, Inspection & Logistics:

- Annual Inspection: Last completed July 1999.
- Wing Spars & Structural Wood: Restored in 1989 with all applicable ADs and thoroughly inspected; structural integrity is excellent.
- Fabric: Well-maintained with classic Canadian colors yellow/blue military paint scheme.
- Logbooks: Complete and continuous civilian logbooks.

Seller's Note & Pricing:
During its active flight years, this aircraft offered an incredibly light, responsive pitch and yaw controls, gentle stall characteristics, and true tailwheel satisfaction.
Since 2002, Fairchild N69256 has been a treasured companion of its current owner.